WORK with Us

Collaboration is at the heart of the Anti-Counterfeiting Group's mission. We welcome membership from brands and others working in the field of IP. We welcome partnership with law enforcement agencies, government bodies, industry associations and anyone committed to stopping the spread of counterfeit goods.

By working together we amplify our collective impact, share vital intelligence, support policy and research and develop innovative solutions that protect consumers and safeguard intellectual property.

There are many ways to get involved. For more information on how to collaborate with us, get in touch and join us in making a real difference in the fight against transnational counterfeiting.
